NDC PROFORUM USA WISHES PARTY WELL DURING NATIONAL EXECUTIVE ELECTIONS.

NDC Professionals Forum USA wishes to extend its well wishes to our mother party as we prepare for our National Delegates Congress on December 17, 2022. As a party in waiting to form the next government come 2025, it's imperative to position ourselves to elect leaders who can rally Ghanaians to achieve prosperity.

We implore delegates to elect fearless, competent and trustworthy leaders with utmost loyalty to our country and party. Delegates and aspirants should also strictly adhere to the guidelines for the elections to deepen the democracy in our party and nation as a whole.

The NDC Proforum is fully prepared to support the party and the elected executives with every resources we can marshal. Our commitment is to the party and the entire leadership and shall continue to the benefit of our beloved party and country.

As the largest opposition party, we should be minded that the 2024 elections will never be a walkover hence the need to get the right human resource both at the front lines and back end to develop programs and policies that would meet the needs and aspirations of our country.

Our new elected executives should have the ability to sell our programs and device robust strategies to ensure the NPP is booted out of power.
